You can enter México if you have a valid multiple entries visa from one of the following:

Canada · Japan · Schengen · UK · US

What if I have none of the above?

Then you'll have to apply for the Mexican visa through the embassy in Riyadh. But we recommend obtaining one of the visas listed above, as they're easier to apply for outside Riyadh — and can be useful for other destinations too.

Does the UK EVW grant me entry to México?

No. The British Electronic Visa Waiver only permits entry to the UK and does not serve as a visa for other countries. If I don't have US visa, can I transit through the US when I buy my ticket?

No. Without US visa, you cannot transit through the United States.

If I don't have Schengen visa, can I transit through the European Union when I buy my tickets?

Yes, but you need to make sure of the following: You're only allowed to transit with one stop in the EU; flying-in from a non-EU member and flying-to a non-EU member, without the need to leave/change the airport.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

O How physically demanding is the trip?

Nothing super extreme—just some fitness and a willingness to stay active and a spirit for adventure is all you need.

Is it beginner-friendly for backpacking?

Yes! Our trips are designed with first-timers in mind, and our guides are there to support you throughout.

How big is the group?

We keep it small—10 travelers plus 2 guides—to keep things fun, flexible, and easy to connect.

O Can I join solo? Is it safe for female travelers?

Yes, and it's actually encouraged to join solo! You'll have the best time getting to know the group, and as long as you're with the group and follow the guides' instructions, our trip is very safe.

How big can my backpack be?

Your backpack must not exceed 10kg, as you'll be carrying it often and we only allow carry-on luggage, no checked bags. This keeps you comfortable and makes moving around much easier.

O Can I have a private room?

Not on these trips. We stay in hostels to keep things social and immersive—it's a key part of the experience.

O How much cash should I bring? Do they accept cards?

We recommend bringing $200–$500. Credit cards work in most places, but small shops often prefer cash.

What if I arrive early or late?

Early is best—we'll gladly suggest where to stay. Arriving late is discouraged, as it's harder to catch up with the group and you'll miss key trip introductions.

Can I join only part of the trip?

No. The trip is designed to be experienced in full, from start to finish—it's all part of the magic.

Will Saudi Nomad guides be in the post trip experiences?

No. Post trip experiences are run by awesome local guides, separate from the main trip and have separate arrangements.
